

Year 1 History – Holidays old and new

What we should know

- How the past is represented in different ways
- The difference between old and new
- The difference between fact and fiction

What we are going to learn (LOs)

- To know what seaside holidays were like when our grandparents were children.
- To use photographs to provide information about seaside holidays in the recent past.
- To use sources to provide information about seaside holidays in the recent past.
- To use stories to provide information about seaside holidays in the recent past
- To understand the diversity of holiday experiences from when our grandparents were children.
- To use our knowledge of the seaside in the past to create our own reconstruction.

Seaside holidays in Victorian times

Seaside holidays about 50 years ago

Seaside holidays now

Key vocabulary

Seaside	A place by the sea, especially a beach area or holiday resort
Beach	A pebbly or sandy shore between sea and land
Promenade	A path next to the beach where people go for a walk
Souvenir	Something that is kept as a reminder of a place or event
Bathing Machine	A wheeled hut drawn to the edge of the sea, used for changing in
Penny lick	A small glass used for serving ice cream
Charabanc	An early form of bus used for trips
Pier	A raised platform coming out of the shore over the sea

